Cariboo vs. Montana. If we are to place faith in the state. ments of more than one old Caribooite who has returned penniless from Blackfoot, "all is not gold that glitters" in Montana. Last season several hundred of our best miners were induced dition of things proceeding from all by glowing accounts in the Oregon papers to desert their claims at Cariboo and cross the mountains to the Blackfoot country, where they confidently expected fortunes were to be had for the picking up, and where the poorest diggings paid from $25 to $50 per day to the hand. The whole country was represented bilities of the future before embarking as wealthy beyond parallel; every gulch was said to yield untold riches to the eager delvers,-every hillside to glitter with great seams of gold bearing quartz. Scarcely had the poor deluded Caribooites reached the It may be that the country will escape Promised Land before they realized a season of financial disruption and Promised Land before they realized how completely they had been the dupes of designing men. They found thousands of half starved men hanging about the towns, unable to obtain employment at any rate of wages, Around the mining camps they saw other thousands vainly endeavoring to stratch an existence from diggings that at Cariboo the poorest man would not have deemed worth his while to linger a day upon. In place of large fortunes they found starvation and misery on every side. Instead of diggings that would pay from $25 to $50 per day, they ascertained that the average yield did not exceed $2 50 per day to the hand. The shallow surface diggings had been worked out in 1865; "big strikes" were among the things of the past or existed only in the imagination of the persons who had reported them. The country was overrun with men from all quarters, and whenever a small prospect of gold was obtained by a prospector, there was an instantaneous rush to the coveted spot by hungry thousands, anxious to work for their "grub." And as for gold-bearing quartz, in one district alone, our informants in one district alone, our informants their sales lessened. A greater number its appearance in the constellation of say they counted nearly two hundred bor of persons than usual are also to the Crown. It was but one out of a skyfull large freight wagons filled with quartz- be found in the streets out of employmill machinery from the East, drawn up at the road side, and deserted by their owners, who had been unable to collect the freight on the machinery, and had started back for the "States" disheartened, and, in some instances, hopelessly rained, because the "quartz would not pay to crush." The condition of wretchednesss into which the country was plunged, and the impossibility of remaining in a territory where every third man was next door to, if he was not actually a beggar, presented themselves so forcibly to the Caribooites that all who have the means to do so are preparing to return. One by one they come dropping into our mines, telling the same woeful tale of deception and disappointment, and pronouncing Cariboo the richest mining district on the coast, where there is a larger amount of gold produced in proportion to the number of diggers employed than in any other country in the world. It is true Cariboo has had it is true Cariboo has had it is true Cariboo has had with the syng can be made to the loying can. The kingdom of the world with the sphere of the mining district of the mining them periodically within the sphere of the mining that the meteors are nebulour masses moving in very oval or elliptical orbits, which bring them periodically within the sphere of the will grace the Exhibition is a sovereign of note, the nigger king of Bonny, who, it is true Cariboo has had human skuli to 100,000 guests to drink from the sphere of the shower which occurred on the 10th of August, 1866, he was astonished to find that they were almost identical with those of the great were almost identical with those of the great were almost identical with these of the great were almost identical with those of the great were almost identical with those of the great were almost identical with those of the great where the mining district that the meteors are nebulour masses moving in very oval or elliptical orbits, which bring them periodically within the sphere of the meteors are nebulour masses moving in very oval or elliptical orbits, which bring and igniting influence of the elements of the meteors are nebulour masses moving in very oval or elliptical orbits, which bring in very oval or elliptical orbits, which bring and igniting in very oval or elliptical orbits, which bring that the meteors are nebulour masses moving in very oval or ell the same woeful tale of deception and its drawbacks, and many men who have gone thither have not realized fortunes; but the yield is steadily increasing. New creeks are discovered every season. In old claims that were supposed to have been worked out years ago, new strata have been reached that promise to pay abundantly for years, while quartz leads crop out everywhere and bid fair to prove permanent sources of wealth to the country. The news from the diggings, though not exciting, becomes daily better. The population, though small, is contented and prosperous, and the prospect of a steady

A gloomy state of uncertainty exists in business circles throughout the Western States of the Union, and the public journals-like faithful sentinels on the watchtowers-have begun to sound the toesin of alarm. A serious panic is anticipated by the best informed authorities. The paper currency the war called into existence gave every interest a fletitious import. ance and value which the gradual return to specie payments is dissipating. The prohibitory tariff-modeled, we almost think, after the exclusive $ system of the Japanese, when the Americans (then great Free Traders) sent to that country a fleet to open its ports to trade-has also wrought great evils that must soon fall with withering effect upon the commercial and financial interests of the country. There are certain immutable natural laws, the operation of which nations no mere than individuals can escape, serious, is that Stephens visits the English embassy in secret. What does he there?

and which bring their own punishment or reward as they are violated or observed, The establishment of a system of trade and finance upon an unsound basis is just as certain to entail distress and disaster as a house that is built upon an insecure foundation will inevitably tumble about the ears of the occupants. The Chicago Tribune, in an article foreshadowing the evil results of overtrading and prohibition, says:

The attempt of those who have embarked in all manner of speculative enterprises to realise their invest. ments and hold the same in cash, is but a prudent measure to avert the crushing effects of the storm, should one come. There is an unhealthy conthis. The annual strife between landlords and tenants has an extraordinary intensity in all parts of the country this season Capital trembles as it looks into the future. Labor is demanding an increase of wages in the face of the impending panic and prostration. Never was there a time when the man of large means should in new enterprises, and never was there a time when those who live anon their earnings, be they great or small, should so retrench their expenditures in every possible means to be able better to meet the impending difficulty.

PARISIAN GOSSIP ABOUT STEPHENS, THE FENIAN LEADER.—A Paris correspondent of a Western journal famishes the following: James Stephens is hving at No. 30 Romey street, at Montmarire, where he seems to be quite comfortable, having his wife and brother in law with him, which does not proved. er inclaw with him, which does not prevent er-in-slaw with him, which does not prevent him from complaining of his poverty. A few days ago one of his countrymen, who had not a penny, came to solicit his aid. 'I have not a dollar, my lad,' replied he, 'but come with me, perhaps I may procure some help for you.' On the road they met a passer-by, whom Stephens declared to be an acquaint-ance of his, and, leaving his helpless companion, he chatted for an instant with his 'friend.' Stephens, returning to the Irishman, here are five france, this centleman has man, 'here are live france, this gentleman has lent me ten; it is all I have; let us shate.'
This said, Stephens left his companion. The latter a short time after, was near a carriage stand, and to his surprise saw Stephen hire one and get in. Our Irishman considered it odd that a man who had but five francs should engage a carriage at fifty sous an hour. He seated himself patiently near the carriage stand, and waited till either Stephens or the carriage returned. Stephens had paid for the three hours. Another fact, still more

Such is, in brief, the history of the Russian American Trading Company of the present day, whose extended charter has lately expired, never to be renewed. Emulous of the remarkable success attending the Hudson Bay Company's enterprise, they gradually pushed their operations in all directions, and extended Contemporareous Discoveries, (From the N. Y. Journal of Commerce.)

There is an apparent strangeness of coincidence in the lact that important scientific discoveries are often made simultaneously by two or more persons. The coincidence is only apparent, however, and may be explained in this way: A number of minds of plained in this way: A number of minds of the other than the plained in this way: A number of minds of the contemporare and the apparent between the same ability are investigation to the formula of the contemporare and the originally prescribed limits, having at last reached the constitutions for distinct properties. In the course of his endistributed 52 north, longitude 138 of north, longitude 138 north, longitude 138 nort the law or thing discovered.

Curious instances of this coincidence have occurred within a few days. The best known, perhaps, is the discovery of the farthest thirtyreight fur and trading stations along the WHY THE EMPEROR REFUSED TO RENEW THEIR

The Humiliations of France. (Die Presse - Vienna)

It is a fact which cannot be denied that It is a fact which cannot be denied that there is a certain disquieude existing in all classes of Freuch society. The speech of Thiers was merely the spark which set a light to the mine. The terrible blunders of the Napoleonic policy are evident. No cloquence can hush them up. Immediately after the failure in Mexico came the German was with the facility of the property of the second of the s war with its fearful dissillusions. Count Bismarck was never more hopeful than when after his interview in Biarritz, he caused it to be reported by his own agents in Europe that the Emperor Napoleon had said of him that he was not an homme serieux. Bismarck fally utilized the power of attorney given him, and the seed of the Prusso-Italian

Such a situation is certainly not pleasant. and the natural reaction of it is the excite ment of Chauvinist passions in France. do not rejoice at these phenomena; we simply state them. To give up the prestige of the great nation is extraordinarily hard for the French. The cramped French spirit nation. Nevertheless, he dares and cannot set himself in opposition to the spirit of the French reople. He is, therefore, eecking for a compromise, and "the centre of gravity of the situation" lies for the present in the trenches of Luxemburg.

All reliable reports agree that if Prussia gives up her previous opposition in this ques-tion, any disturbance of the peace of the world is not to be apprehended. The Kolnische Zeitung, which knows a great deal nische Zeitung, which knows a great deal about such matters, works out the Bismarckian idea beforehand, by declaring, it has no objection to the negotiations with the Dutch German lower country succeeding. All things considered, Prussia needs to digest her acquisitions, and to strengthen her new, almost dazzling position, instead of pluoging into a great war. It almost appears as if the card of the treaties with South Germany had been played out in order to make the Luxemburg arrangement more endurable to the German people. We hardly believe that Laxe-moirg arrangement more contradic to the German people. We hardly believe that this question can lead to war. The alarm-cry about the natural boundaries, which the head trumpeter of the Empire, M. Granier de Cassagnae, raises in the Pays, is only for the purpose of expediting the acquisition of Laxamourg, in our opinion. What will finally happen then? Probably only what King William and his almighty Premier think proper. And at this moment, war with France does n.t seem good to those two important actors. As for the North German Parliament, we are not naive enough to consider it an organ, much less a powerful exister it and organ. sider it an organ, much less a powerful organ, of the German poople. The friends of peace have accordingly scarcely any cause for uncasiness, and the success of the com-promise is, spite of all denial, more probable than the contrary.

We heard of a curious little affair which took place in New York recently. It seems that a gentleman well known in society, gave a large dinner party, to which he invited both ladies and gentlemen. The dinner was served in the most elegant style, the table-cloth, we are told, being of white velvet, and the china, class and silver being of the most magnificent. glass and silver being of the most magnificen description: Soup was served, then fish, and, just as the waiters were preparing to bring on the third course, and while the host was re-lating a very interesting story, in which ho was the hero, the folding doors were suddenly thrown open and a man walked in, and, ad-yancing to the host, laid his hand on his shoulder and said in a vaice load enough for shoulder, and said, in a voice loud enough for all to hear, 'I am the Sheriff, Sir, and have a warrant for your arrest.' The Responsible Organ.—The stomach is responsible for more evits than were contained in Pandora's flox. Atonic, dyspepsia or simple indigestion, is the first indication, of more than half the diseases cammerated in medical books. Meet it at once with Bristol's Sarsaparilla, the most gooid tonic and corrective which the botanic kingdom bas yet yielded to chemical science. Invigorate the stomach and gently simulate its gastric action with this famous restorative. Remainder that the digestive apparatus is the primary source of vitality from which the whole body draws its supplies, and that Bristol's Sarsaparilla is a specific for the disorders that affect it. In all diseases all cting the liver, stomach or bowels, Bristol's Vegetable Pills should be used at same time with the Sarsaparilla.

(BEFORE THE MAGISTRATE, THE MAYOR, AND G. F. FOSTER, ESQ , J P.)

THURSDAY, June 20, 1867. King's Head-Mr Courtney applied for a transfer of the license from the King's Head Salcon, Johnson street, to the Colonial Market. Granted.

Patrick Everett applied, through Mr Bishop, for a license to retail spirits on the Esquimalt road, in Victoria West. Mr Bishop said that Mr Trahey, who had opposed the granting of a license on a previous occasion now withdrew his opposition because Everett intended to open a general store. All the landholders in the vicinity, with the exception of two, supported the application.

Mr George Robinson and Mr Drake appeared to oppose, and the application was

FROM FRASER LAKE-Mr Burke, a gentleman connected with the Collins Telegra h Company, who wintered at Fraser Lake, some 600 miles in the interior of the mainland, came down on the last trip of the Enterprise He reports a severe winter at the lake. During part of the season the mercury congealed. Snow lay to the depth of three or four feet in the valleys; and in the woods it was five and six feet deep. Several head of cattle belonging to the Telegraph Company wandered off during the winter and were lost. Some twenty head of pack animals belonging to the Hudson Bay Company died during the winter. They were principally worn out by the summer's work. Communication with the other telegraph stations was had by means of snow shoes, and the line was maintained intact during the season. Small game was plentiful and our informant and the other telegraph employes managed to pass the weary time quite comfortably. THE BRITISH DELEGATIONS .- Dr. Guthrie and Earl of Dalhousie, delegates of the Scottish Free Church, with their families, were to sail for New York on Saturday, April 12th. The Earl of Dalhousie is better known as Hon. Fox Maul, an eminent debater on the Liberal side of the House of Commons. He was Secretary, of War, under the title of Lord Panmure, during the celebrated Crimean struggle. He is a warm hearted Christian man, and an earnest advocate of the union between the different branches of the Presbyterian Church of Scotland, and in favor of a closer fellowship between all the branches of the Presbyterian family in all lands.

AGRICULTURAL. - We receive daily accourts from Sooke and Metchosin districts of the promising condition of the crops there The rain of the past few days has revived the cereals and vegetables, and full crops are looked for. There is a much larger quantity of land under cultivation this year than ever before, and live stock is increasing rapidly. The panthers and wolves are numerous and very bold, and the settlers are compelled to be on the alert at all hours to thwart their dosigns on the young stock.

A gay and festive pleasure excursion to the newly acquired territory in Russian America has already been arranged at Washington The expedition will embrace several national vessels, with full crews, a detatchment of the army, and a large number of persons connected with the Government in various ways. It will sail early in July, and be absent till the end of September. The party will be a large one, and they will take with them everything necessary for comfort. Expense, of course, no object, as the Treasury will foot the bill.

The Young Men's Christian Association at Chicago, Illinois, furnishes funds to pay postage on all letters that are dropped into the Post Office without stamps, through careless-ness or otherwise, and thus prevents their being sent to the Dead Letter Office. A printed slip is affixed to each letter, informing the recipient how the postage was paid, and inviting him to contribute to the Association, and sometimes the response is quite generous.

A Reque AND A VAGABOND .- James McGils vray, an out-door patient of the Hospital, who has been several times before the court on various charges, and was hunted out of Cariboo for tobing a sluice box, was brought be fore Mr. Pemberton yesterday on a charge of being a rogue and a vagabond. He pleaded for time in which to leave the country, and the magistrate allowed him three days.

THE STORE STREET ROW,-Mike Heenan received a severe lecture yesterday from the magistrate for interfering with the police in the discharge of their duty. Mike, who speaks good English, is said to be one of the best billiard players on the Island, and is looked upon as a hard customer. The Indian who ran off with the handcuffs returned them, and was let off with a light fine.

SEVERE ACCIDENT .- A lad in the employ of Chief Justice Needham, while riding a horse belonging to his master, yesterday morning, was thrown from the animal and fractured his collar-bone and dislocated his left shoulder. The little sufferer was brought in by one o Lester's wagons, and received medical attendance from Dr. Powell.

from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective untidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-clitzens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:

with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no insting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle. LAUREATE OF THE PARIS IMPERIAL ACADEMY OF MEDICINE This delicious, preparation is prescribed by the most reputed doctors in France, against all derangements of the digestive functions, such as gastrais, partraigia, long and parallul digestions, wind in the stomach and bowels, manifation, jaundice, and complaints of the liver and
